

What activities may be assigned to recover attendance?

Plans are unique to each student.

Examples:

- additional work is assigned
- tutoring/study hall time is assigned
- practice on SAT/ACT skills (must occur outside of school day, at school)
- NHS/PALS/AVID tutoring (must occur outside of the school day)
- any combination of the above
- other academic activities as assigned

How does the 90% law impact middle school students?

For middle school students who are taking courses for high school credit, the high school rules apply. Students must meet the 90% attendance requirement by the end of the year.

Why did my student lose credit?

TEC section 25.092 reads "...any grade level from kindergarten through grade 12 may not be given credit or a final grade for a class unless the student is in attendance for at least 90 percent of the days the class is offered."

Is a doctor's note required for each absence?

No, a doctor's note is not required for each absence. Parents are allowed 5 "Parent Contact" days without a doctor's note. Parent Contact days after the allowed 5 days are unexcused.

What types of absences do not count against my student's 90% attendance law?

Activities that do not count against the 90% attendance law include, but are not limited to:

- School field trip
- UIL activity
- Dual credit course
- College visit or other school-related event
