

Talkington Student Creed

I am A Lady Warrior

I will be honest with myself as the decisions I make today affect the rest of my life

I will push my limits academically through STEAM

I will forge through challenges with the discipline to succeed and the courage to fail – now, throughout college and beyond

I will reject average and embrace excellence

We are classmates by chance, sisters by choice

We will preserve the bonds that are made within these walls

We are – Lady Warriors
